Chorales for Flutes

Various / arr. Donald Cookley

It seems only natural for arrangers to look to the choral repertoire to create sets of short chorales as warm ups or concert pieces. This collection takes some famous chorales from Luther, Praetorius and others and puts them together to form a practical and useful suite that is approachable by young musicians. This arrangement is part of an interchangeable set for 4 instruments that can combine any number of instruments (flutes, clarinets, saxophones, trumpets, horns, trombones and tubas).

Danse a la Gigue

By Kevin Kaisershot

This energetic work is dance-like in character with a touch of frivolity. It brings to mind a more contemporary setting of the moresca or Renaissance masque. It is also the third movement of the trumpet suite Suite Divertissement with the other movements being Marche Heroique and Vignette.

Duets for All

By Albert Stoutamire and Kenneth Henderson

Duets for All enables any two instruments to play duets. Not only may two like-instruments such as two flutes play together, but two dissimilar instruments such as violin and tuba may perform all of the duets. The duets cover a wide range of styles and music from baroque through contemporary eras, and they range in difficulty from grades I through IV.

Easy Collection of Flute Quartets

Various / arr. David Marlatt

This collection is directed at the developing player and a wide variety of pieces has been arranged with this in mind. Pieces include the main themes from: Aura Lee, Surprise Symphony, 1812 Overture, Battle Hymn of the Republic, O God Our Help in Ages Past, Canon (Mozart), and several others. The concept of these collections is to bridge the gap between the younger players and professionals by providing "stepping stones" in difficulty while introducing players to an enormous cross-section of music.

Moments MajestiqueBy Kevin Kaisershot*

Moments Majestique is a versatile duet that works well for any occasion. It has a "royal" or "regal" air about it, and is adaptable to almost any instrumental combination or cross-over. It is designed for the intermediate level performer, but can be played by almost any level performer as ranges are small and rhythms reasonably simple.

Musical TagBy Kevin Kaisershot*

Musical Tag is a light-hearted work designed to provide some amusement amongst the performers by way of a "chase" between two voices with the third voice tagging along. Each voice is given melodic material at some point in the piece and the rhythmic skill being emphasized is the two sixteenth-eighth pattern, both ascending and descending.

Rondeau Gracieuse

By Kevin Kaisershot

As the third movement of Suite Historique, this versatile work is adaptable to many combinations of instruments. It is dance-like in character with a slight sense of urgency. It is an excellent tool for teaching the rondo form as this piece follows an A, A1, B, A2, C, A3 pattern. Each time the A section appears, it is slightly different than before.

Scherzo DiaboliqueBy Kevin Kaisershot*

Scherzo Diabolique is a diabolical display of notes and rhythms designed to showcase the technical skills of the trio who performs it. It is a relentless foray into a facile-fingered fold. While initially sounding sinister, it takes on a light-hearted respite during the oasis that is the relative major. Not to be outdone, the diabolical nature returns with a vengeance to send this piece to its furious conclusion. The piece is dedicated to Mary Kay Godfrey, who provided the materials necessary to complete this composition.

The Belwin Student Instrumental Course is a course for individual instruction and class instruction of like instruments, at three levels, for all band instruments. Each book is complete in itself, but all books are correlated with each other. Although each book can be used separately, all supplementary books should be used as companion books with the method. Piano Acc. Book to be used with Duets Level I, for Flutes, Clarinets, Alto Saxophones, Cornets and Trombones.

Studies in SyncopationBy Kevin Kaisershot*

This piece was designed to teach various forms of syncopation in an ensemble setting. While much of what is presented is pretty straightforward and somewhat "common" in terms of syncopated figures, there is still an element of "tongue-in-cheek" to this work.

Tableau RoyaleBy Kevin Kaisershot*

A tableau can be defined as a picturesque grouping of persons, striking a pose. So too is my vision of this piece as I see a group of individuals in a statuesque, albeit somewhat regal setting, each with a dignified character of their own and each with something to say.

Three Renaissance MadrigalsVarious / arr. David Marlatt*

The Silver Swan, My Heart to Thee Now Makes its Plea and Now is the Month of Maying make up this set of famous madrigals for 4 flutes. There are two slower melodies and one fast one to add variety to this suite. A piece could be played by itself or all three could be played together as a set. These simple vocal pieces are excellent to develop ensemble playing techniques such as balance and intonation. This arrangement is part of an interchangeable set that can combine any number of instruments (flutes, clarinets, saxophones, trumpets, horns, trombones and tubas).

Trios for AllBy Albert Stoutamire and Kenneth Henderson*

A variety of combinations of instruments can play trios with these books. With the exception of the basses, any three like-instruments such as three flutes, three clarinets, three cornets, three trombones, three bassoons, and so on can play together in three-part harmony. Numerous mixed-instruments such as violin, trumpet, and tuba also may perform all of the trios in these books. Basses must play the bottom line only, but the music is arranged so that they have the melody from time to time. Any number of instrumentalists may play together in three-part harmony. Thus, directors can rehearse the music with large ensembles an assign trios of players or groups of players to practice and perform together.
