Notes to the Conductor

This groovin' tune features a contagious riff-based melody over a bluesy background that harkens to Count Basie's Kansas City blues band or the riff-filled juke joints of 1930s rural America. Imagine a small roadside building with no air conditioning filled to the rafters with youngsters wanting to show their latest dance moves to the hopping sounds of the territory's hottest swing band. A section for solos or soli, including backgrounds in all parts, builds to a return of the melody, swingin' to the end. A perfect tune to feature swing-dancing students! Jump, Jive, and Strings...
