

THE LUCKIEST

Words and Music by
BEN FOLDS

A series of horizontal lines and thick black bars, likely representing a musical score or a placeholder for a drawing. The lines are arranged in several groups, with some groups consisting of multiple parallel lines and others consisting of a single line. The thick black bars are solid and rectangular, interspersed among the lines.